Officiating Secretary to the Government of India.

Extract from the Proceedings of Government of India, in the Financial Department, dated 5th September 1860, No. 9,021.

Read the following:—

No. 4,425, Public Works Department, Fort William, the 29th August 1860.

Forwarded in original to the Financial Department, for consideration and orders, with intimation that the Consulting Engineer audits Railway salary bills.

Telegram from Secretary Government, North Western Provinces, Murree, received 28th August 1860.

28th August. Is the Consulting Engineer competent to deduct Income Tax from Railway salaries?

Financial Department, Fort William, the 5th September 1860.

RESOLUTION.

His Excellency the Governor General in Council is of opinion that Consulting Engineers are not competent to deduct Income Tax from Railway salaries, unless they are appointed Special Assessors, under the provisions of Section 31 of Act XXXII of 1860.

2. His Excellency in Council sees no objection, however, to their being so appointed.

Ordered, that a copy of the above be sent to the Public Works Department for information and for the issue to further necessary orders.

(A true Extract.)

(Signed) C. H. LUSHINGTON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

No. 151.

ORDER THEREON, 11th January 1861, No. 77.

1. Resolved that the foregoing Memorandum together with the Financial Resolution No. 9,021, dated 5th September 1860, which accompanied it, be communicated to the Consulting Engineer for Railways.
