Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 17*th April* 1861.

No. 282. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th March 1861, No. 1,642:—

Read the following letter from J. I. MINCHIN, Esq., Acting Collector of Kurnool, to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 15th March 1861, No. 7.

SIR,

1. With reference to paragraph 53 of your Circular, No. 4,403, on the Income Tax, I have the honor to report for the information of the Board, that I have appointed P. Vedaghiry to act as Assistant English writer in the Income Tax Department on a salary of Rupees 30 from the 14th instant, in addition to the establishment at a monthly cost of Rupees 115 already sanctioned by the Order of Government, dated No. 2,355, 10th December last.

2. P. Vedaghiry will be employed as confidential Clerk in this Department under the Head Assistant Collector at Cumbum.

1. Submitted for the sanction of Government.

2. As the Head Assistant's station—Cumbum—is at a considerable distance from Kurnool, the addition of a writer to his establishment is necessary.

3. The Board presume that by "Confidential Clerk" the Collector only means that the Clerk in question will be sworn to secrecy and specially employed on Income Tax work. A "confidential" subordinate, in the ordinary sense of the terms, is not required, and 30 Rupees per mensem would not be likely to secure such an officer.

(Signed) J. D. SIM, Secretary.

No. 283. ORDER THEREON, 17th April 1861, No. 861.

In the Order of 4th July 1860, No. 1,104, paragraph 3, the Government declined to sanction any establishment for the Sub-Collectors and Head Assistants for the Income Tax Department. No good reason is given why such aid should be necessary in Kurnool in particular, for the mere distance of the Head Assistant's station is an element scarcely entering into the question at all. The Head Assistant's charge in Kurnool contains a poor and almost wholly rural population, the only town and that a small one being Cumbum. The Government see no reason why the Head Assistant's ordinary establishment should not suffice for the small additional work arising from the Income Tax, and they decline to approve the appointment of the Clerk.

(Signed) J. D. BOURDILLON,

Secretary to Government.
