Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
17th Jannary 1862.

No. 37. Read the following Official Memorandum from F. LUSHINGTON, Esq., Acting Accountant General, to Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. HORSLEY, Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, D. P. W., dated Fort Saint George, 4th January 1862, No. 266:—

1. The Acting Accountant General has the honor to request that the Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, will be good enough to state what amount should be provided in the Budget estimate for 1862-63, on account of the Pier establishment. In the orders of Government, dated 29th November last, No. 2,201, the sum of Rupees 182-8-0 per month has been sanctioned on that account from the 1st instant.

2. The Acting Accountant General requests also to be informed, whether the amount of toll to be imposed should be estimated in the Budget for the ensuing year, if so, whether the Government have the means of forming an estimate of the amount and of determining under what head it should be exhibited.

No. 38. ORDER THEREON, 17th January 1862, No. 20.

The Pier Committee will be requested to report with reference to paragraph 2 of the Accountant General's Memorandum, the amount of toll which may be expected to be realized during the year 1862-63.
