Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 23rd January 1862.

No. 94. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. CARPENDALE, Acting Deputy Chief Engineer, Central Circle, to Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. HORSLEY, Chief Engineer and Secretary to Government, P. W. D., dated Chepauk, 20th January 1862, No. 9,586:—

SIR,

1 Letter, dated 8th January 1862, with a bill.

1. With reference to the accompanying letter from Mr. J. Dopping, 1st Assistant District Engineer, I have the honor to recommend that the Civil Paymaster may be authorized to pass to that Officer a moiety* of the salary of District Engineer, during the time he may continue in charge of the Madras District in addition to a moiety† of his own salary as 1st Assistant District Engineer, agreeably to the rule laid down in paragraph 14, Chapter, III of the Civil Auditor's Manual, and that the same may be allowed to him retrospectively from the 12th December 1861, the date following that on which he received charge of the District from Captain A. S. Moberly.

* Rupees 450. This is a moiety of the salary which should be allowed to a District Engineer of the 2nd Class of Civilian.

† Rupees 300.

2. By this arrangement Mr. Dopping's monthly salary bill for the present will be Rupees 750, or Rupees 150 in excess of that of his substantive appointment, which can be met from the moiety of Staff salary, Rupees 350, forfeited by Captain Moberly; the remainder of Captain Moberly's forfeited moiety or Rupees 200, which is the deputation allowance authorized for an Officer officiating as an Executive (1st Assistant) Engineer, in paragraph 50, Chapter XI, of the Civil Auditor's Manual, being reserved for the Officer who may be appointed to act in succession to Mr. Dopping.

No. 95. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1862, No. 49.

Referred to the Civil Paymaster who is requested, when reporting on Mr. Dopping's claim, to state what salary the Officer (2nd Assistant District Engineer, Civil or Military) acting for him as 1st Assistant District Engineer would be entitled to.
