Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 10th November 1862.

No. 197. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel H. W. HITCHINS, Superintendent and Controller of the Pier Works, to Colonel W. I. BIRDWOOD, R. E., Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Madras, 1st November 1862, No. 1,790:—

SIR,

I have the honor to report that the high surf that prevailed during a part of yesterday in the Madras Roadstead has caused some damage to the two Ladders at the end of the Pier. They are broken at the landing parts or just below where they rested on the supporting beams, and agreeably to the terms of the Contract, I have called the attention of the Agent to it, and instructed him to make the necessary repairs as speedily as possible.

No. 198. ORDER THEREON, 10th November 1862, No. 2,704.

The Superintendent and Controller will be good enough, on the completion of the repairs referred to in this letter, to report the circumstances for the information of Government.

(Signed) W. I. BIRDWOOD, Colonel, R. E.,
Secretary to Government.
