JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following letter from V. H. LEVINGE, Esq., Collector of Madura; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 12th February 1862, No. 81.

With reference to the Order of Government, dated 8th January 1862, No. 21, I have the honor to report that the new Munsiff's Court House at Dindigul, if disposed of in auction, would not probably fetch more than half what its cost may have been.

2. I think it would be more advantageous to Government, to make it over to the Department of Public Instruction; it would, if altered, accommodate 70 or 80 boys, while the school only contains 60. I believe that Department's only objection to it was its shape, but I should think that might be got over; it is situated in a large compound in a good situation with a good well in its neighbourhood.

3. It might be made into a Travellers' Bungalow by partitioning off part of the Veranda as a bath room, and if the present Public Bungalow which is only a thatched and wretched building and its site were sold, the proceeds would probably be more than sufficient to build small out-offices such as a cook-room and privy.

ORDER THEREON, 24th Febr[illegible] 1862, No. 998.

The Collector is of opinion that the building constructed for the District Moonsiff's Court at Dindigul, may be used either for a School-house or a Travellers' Bungalow.

2. The Director of Public Instruction having already informed the Government that the building is not adapted for a School, the suggestion to fit it up for the use of Travellers remains for consideration. Paragraph 3 of Mr. Levinge's letter will accordingly be referred to the Revenue Department for orders.
