Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 18th March 1862.

No. 314. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 6th March 1862, No. 1,503:—

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Cuddapah, to W. HUDLESTON, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Madras, dated Duvur, 20th December 1861, No. 150.

SIR,

1. In the Proceedings Board of Revenue, dated 30th July 1858, No. 2,903, Government sanctioned the disbursement to Bangarama during her life of Rupees 182-4-8 per annum, being half the pension enjoyed by her deceased husband, as recommended by the Board of Revenue under date 17th July 1858, No. 2,661.

2. She, the widow, refused to take the allowance at that time, on account of not getting the full pension enjoyed by her late husband, she now applies for the moiety sanctioned by Government from the date of her late husband's death on the 11th January 1857, viz., from 12th January 1857 to 30th November 1861, or four years, ten months and twenty days, amounting to Rupees 890-13-11. Her identity has been ascertained, and I recommend that the arrears may be paid to her, notwithstanding her badly advised proceeding. She is now only eighteen years of age.

1. Ordered to be submitted for the favorable consideration of Government.

2. The pension in question was sanctioned by Government in Extract Minutes Consultation in the Revenue Department, No. 1,042, dated 27th July 1858, when the widow was of an age (fourteen years) at which probably she could neither act for herself nor fully comprehend the risk she was running in refusing to draw her pension. The Board recommend that the Collector be authorized to disburse the arrears amounting to Rupees 890-13-11 to the widow, on the understanding that the charge can be met out of his Budget Estimate, and to continue payment of the pension.
