Godavery District
V. Veerannah Rai Bahadoor	1st June 1838	Writer Civil Engineers Office 1st Division on 52½ Rs	Manager on Rs 100	21st November 1853	Sub Engineer 3d Class on 1st July 1857	The Services rendered to Government in connection with the anicut works by V. Veerannah are too well known to need any particular notice from me. In the Revenue and other Departments many natives of far less note, and usefulness, are in receipt of double the Salary drawn by him. Veerannah has labored hard and with unflagging zeal in the performance of duty of the most arduous kind. He has almost worn himself out with incessant hard work. The Ag. District Engineer Godavery Considers him preeminently deserving of promotion
A. Ramiah	29th June 1843	Temporary Maistry on the Maistry on permanent the Church Establishment & Bull works of the Civil at Vizagapatam Engineer Godavery Division on Rs 35		11th September 1844	Assistant Supervisor on 1st January 1857	A. Ramiah possesses a very Considerable knowledge of engineering. He can draw plans very neatly and Estimate correctly. His attainments were highly thought of by Colonel Sir A. Cotton (who first employed him at Vizagapatam) Major General Sir Cotton, Colonel Rundall, Captain Haig and Captain Hutchinson He was selected by Sir A. Cotton to accompany Captain (now Colonel) Rundall on a tour of inspection of the irrigation works in Tanjore in 1845. From all these Gentleman he has obtained the most flattering testimonials. Major Stoddard from his knowledge of A. Ramiah, extending now over 9 years, speaks that he can safely bear testimony to his zeal and intelligence as an Executive Officer of the D.P.W.
