form you that as yet no servant whenever has been entertained by me in my new office, and that I purpose entertaining no one until I have received the orders of Government regarding the offices of the District Engineers, and of their Range Officers, belonging to this Division; it is evident that if these offices are to be broken up, it is from these that the best hands of the new office, that of the Supergr. Engineer, should be recruited.

I have the honor to be
