to remit to Mr. Vardon the proceeds of all the latter's audited Salary Bills in deposit, after making good all irrecoverable deficiencies in his Cash Balance on giving up Charge, and to report to my Office the amount of such payments & deductions. No report has yet reached me, but I presume because of the usual delay in transacting such business between distant Offices.
Mr. Vardon's Travelling Allowance Bill, ^{for April} does not appear to have been audited as yet by the Controller, at least it has not been received in my Office, but may have been sent to his old Range or to him direct.

2. No avoidable delay has occurred, so far as I am concerned, in complying with the Government Orders on this subject.

I have the honor to be,
Yours faithfully,
G. W. Walker Lieut. Col. R.E.
