Sir,

With reference to my letter to your address, of the 15th Ultimo No. 167, bringing to your notice the fact that in July last I lost the acting appointment of 2nd Class Sub Engineer which I had held for a period of fourteen months previously to the reorganization of this Department, and to the fact that a short time ago Sub Engineer Colquhoun, my junior in this Department, was appointed to act as a 2nd Class Sub Engineer, also with reference to an Extract from your Proceeding No. 1669 under date the 23rd December 1863, in reply thereto, I have the honor most respectfully to request that you will be pleased to advocate my cause, and bring the matter to the notice of Government, in order that I may be re-appointed to the 2nd Class, of which I have been deprived through no fault of my own.

I have the honor to be, Sir,

(Signed) F. Graham.
