SIR,

1. I have the honor to report that two Contractors have offered to carry out, during the current year, the works as per margin, which have been sanctioned for entry in the Budget of 1864-65. They do not demand any advances, or any payment at all until May; but only require a certificate that they will be paid up in that month. I beg to be informed if I am at liberty to accept this proposal.
