Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 18th August 1864.

No. 361. Read the following Memorandum of the Consulting Engineer, Irrigation and Canal Company, dated Madras, 5th August 1864, No. 59:—

From F. H. HENSLOWE, Agent and Manager, Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, to Captain J. MULLINS, R. E., Consulting Engineer, Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, dated Madras, 28th July 1864, No. 776.

SIR,

1. I have the honor to inform you that I have received from the Secretary to this Company, a letter containing the following passage: "Mr. Budd should be paid for the time he has remained in the service after the expiration of his Agreement, after the rate of the increased pay offered to him by the Board."

2. The Agreement referred to expired on the 20th November last, and the increased pay offered him by the Board was 600 Rupees per mensem with an allowance of one Rupee per diem: Mr. Budd is therefore entitled to draw from the 20th November 1863, salary at the rate of 600 Rupees per mensem with an allowance of one Rupee per diem.

3. I have therefore the honor to enclose copy of the Board's Resolution,* and to request that you will obtain the sanction of the Government to this arrangement.

* Dated 8th October 1863.

At a Meeting of the Board of Director, of the Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, held at the Company's Office, Cannon Street, on Thursday the 8th October 1863,

It was unanimously resolved:—

That this Board are willing to enter into an arrangement for the continuance of Mr. Budd in his present situation of Chief Store-keeper and Chief Accountant of the Company at Madras, at a salary of 600 Rupees per mensem, with an allowance of one Rupee per day, and upon the understanding that the security now given by him be continued, and an Agreement in the form last approved by the Board be executed by him.
