Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 23rd January 1864.

No. 532. Read the following Telegram from Colonel CHAMBERS, Waltair, to Colonel ORR, Madras, dated 19th January 1864, No. 135 :—

What subordinate? An Officer or an Overseer. If the latter, there is no efficient man at hand. Better send me an European from College by Steamer. What a wild scheme to set a man to spend money uncontrolled on a work without survey or estimate.

No. 533. ORDER THEREON, 23rd January 1864, No. 264.

Ordered that the following Telegram be sent :—

"To Colonel Chambers, Waltair via Vizagapatam.

"As from your Telegram it appears that the services of an Officer are available, you can appoint one, charging his salary to work. No Officer being available, a Subordinate will, if possible, be sent. Communicate with Collector about details."

(True Extract.)
