Dated 17-10-	1864.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 17th October 1864.

No. 294. Read the following Memorial of Mr. C. S. DUDGEON, of Longford, Ireland, to His Excellency the Governor, Madras Presidency, East Indies, dated Longford, Ireland, 4th August 1864:—

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

1. That on the 2nd of November 1863, while Memorialist was on leave of absence, he was served with a Notice by the Solicitor to the Secretary of State in Council that his service with the Government of India will terminate in twelve Calendar months from the delivery of said notice.

2. In consequence of said notice Memorialist has declined to return to India until he brings his case to your Excellency's notice for consideration.

3. Memorialist, in January 1855, took the appointment in the Department of Public Works of the Madras Presidency under the impression that the appointment would remain good to him so long as he was able to serve, and after a certain number of years if incapacitated would enjoy a certain annual allowance as stated in the Deed of Covenants.

4. In January 1862 Memorialist's health being so much impaired from constant exposure to the hot sun of India, was obliged to come Home on leave of absence.

5. As Memorialist's health is now thoroughly restored, and all other prospects of securing a livelihood being lost to him by taking the appointment in India, most respectfully beg your Excellency will be graciously pleased to restore to him his situation in the Department of Public Works or grant him some compensation in lieu thereof.

As in duty bound Memorialist will ever remain grateful.

The papers relating to W. Dudgeon case are the papers in W. Merrill the one alluded to by the members of God.

It is not seen that the

any particular consider-

His services were not worth much: & the pay offered to him by his contract, of $300 per annum, was much more than what is allowed to the department guide for which he was found qualified.
W. Dudgeon has received one year's notice, expressly
to the terms of his contract;

W. Dudgeon has received
to the terms of his contract;
and during that year he will receive pay at furlough rates.
It is true that his name
Merrill wrote to W.
Merrill to the effect that if found competent he would not be required to quit the service until entitled to pension, - but I think it is clear that as to writing, the James McPherson over-stepped his powers, &

that the ~~contract~~ construction placed by him upon the contract was strained & erroneous. It is evident that an interpretation of the contract has been communicated to the Govt. in this place the contract gives to the Govt. the power of summarily dismissing the Judge, together with the forfeiture, on his part,
of one year's salary,
in the event of any breach or nonobservance of any of the conditions, provisions or agreements contained in the contract; - one of such provisions being that W. D. shall employ himself honestly & diligently & as a good oversee. With this power of summary dismissal in the hands of Govt., I cannot see the object of introducing into the contract the clause which gives to the Govt. the power to ~~dismiss~~ discharge W. D. upon giving him 12 months notice; unless it were to enable the Govt. to terminate the engagement when W. D. services were no longer required. It should be remembered that the contract gives W. D. a similar right to terminate the engagement upon giving 12 months' notice to Govt.; & it surely can never have been meant that W. D. should have the right to read the contract literally as to his own powers to terminate the engagement, while in considering the corresponding powers of Govt., conditions are to be introduced wholly foreign to the wording & the obvious intention of the contract.

I therefore recommend that the ~~Judge~~ Govt.
Govt. should decline to accede to W. D.'s request.
