It would be better for the Charts and also in what information you should then submit whether the course of his trip from Bombay play an officer or to make a regular view of the place. We did then get something depended upon the depending on Captain

money for being better mature as the Marine Department is not to make a

The Government approved of

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department, 26th October 1864.

Read the following papers:—

No. 37. Proceedings of Government in the Public Works Department.

Inquiring whether a Survey of the Narakal Harbour could be prepared in the Marine Department. (Dated 14th October 1864, No. 2966.)

Referred to the Superintendent of Marine for report.

(Signed) A. J. ARBUTHNOT,
Chief Secretary.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
18th October 1864.

No. 33. From J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 26th October 1864, No. 3581.

In reply to the reference of the 18th instant, on Proceedings of Government, Public Works Department, of the 26th September and 14th instant, I have the honor to inform you that Captain Selby, the Master Attendant at Cochin, is fully equal to the preparation of a sketch of the Coast of Narakal, with a general outline of the bank and the soundings on it, which will give sufficient information for the object in view, namely, the ascertaining its dimensions and capabilities.

2. Lieutenant Selby of the Indian Navy surveyed the Malabar Coast, and no doubt his rough Charts, which are generally projected on a large scale, would be very useful to Captain Selby in enabling him to lay down his soundings. They are probably lodged in the Marine Office at Bombay, and I would suggest that application should be made for a copy of the Coast Chart of the Malabar Coast.

3. The work which the Master Attendant at Cochin could undertake is not a Trigonometrical Survey, but merely a sketch of the Coast and bank of Narakal, which is what is mentioned in the 1st paragraph of the Order of 26th September last, No. 2785.

ORDER THEREON, 26th October 1864, No. 223.
Communicated to the Public Works Department.

(True Extract.)

Chief Secretary.
