Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 13th February 1864.

No. 296. Read the following letter from Lieutenant-Colonel J. C. ANDERSON, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 2nd Division, to Colonel C. A. ORR, R. E., Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Masulipatam, 2nd February 1864,
No. 56 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to report that the Civil salary of Lieutenant Edgecome has been disallowed from the 17th to 31st December by the Controller and Auditor, "in consequence of " Captain Ryves having been relieved of his acting appointment on the former date."

2. On the same grounds Lieutenant Edgecome will not be entitled to Civil salary from 1st to 21st January, the date on which he was re-appointed to act as 3rd Assistant, and I conclude his travelling allowance will also be forfeited.

3. I would beg that Government will be pleased to authorize the payment of Lieutenant
Edgecome's salary and allowances, as a special case, between the dates specified, viz., 17th
December to 21st January (inclusive).

No. 297. ORDER THEREON, 13th February 1864, No. 453.
Recorded, with reference to G. O. No. 391, dated 8th February 1864.
