Government, Department Public Works, dated Waltair, 16th February 1864,
No. 2,198:—

SIR,

No. 150 of 15th January 1864. 1. In reply to the Order of Government as per margin,
I have the honor of stating that as on the subject of the Brick-making Machines at the Godavery, there are no large buildings under construction in that District which are to be built of brick, these machines cannot well be utilized. Mr. Executive Engineer Rundall has, however,
The Central Jail is being built of stone. had issued to him one of them, or at least its Pug Mill, for the preparation of the bricks needed at the Amalapore Cutcherry, lately sanctioned.

2. The second machine is consequently available now for use in any other District where there may be a demand for it, and the first one can also be spared after the 1st of August next.

No. 584. ORDER THEREON, 29th February 1864, No. 592.

Ordered to be recorded.
