Read the following papers :—

No. 183. Memorandum from the Consulting Engineer for Irrigation and Canal Company, to Colonel C. A. ORR, R. E., Secretary to Government, in the Department of Public Works, dated Camp Kurnool, 11th February 1864, No. 144.

From Colonel H. C. COTTON, Chief Engineer, to Major General S. O. E. LUDLOW, Consulting Engineer, Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, dated Kurnool, 27th January 1864, No. 15.

SIR,

I have the honor to forward to you copy of a Telegram just received from Mr. Budd, by which it appears that the Board of Directors order that the office of Agent is to be considered vacant till a successor to Mr. Agnew is appointed. This prevents any question of importance between the Government and the Company being proceeded with for the present. In the meantime there can be no objection to Mr. Budd retaining charge of the Agent's Office as approved by the Government, and though my correspondence on current business must be direct with yourself copies will be sent to the Agent's Office for record.

Telegram from Mr. BUDD, Madras, to Colonel COTTON, Kurnool, dated 26th January 1864.

SIR,

The Board distinctly say that the Office of Agent is to be considered vacant between the dates of Mr. Agnew's resignation and the appointment of his successor.

From R. L. BRUNTON, Esq., Interim Acting Agent, to Major General S. O. E. LUDLOW, Consulting Engineer, Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, dated Kurnool, 9th February 1864, No. 2.

SIR,

1. have the honor to inform you of my receipt of instruction from the Secretary appointing me Interim Acting Manager for the Board in India; under these instructions I proceed immediately to Madras to take charge of the Manager's Office.

2. I beg to enclose for your information copy of a letter to the address of Mr. Budd, having reference to the handing over to me of the books, documents, cash, and other property of the Company.

3. The Secretary informs me that an intimation of my appointment will be forwarded direct to the Government of Madras.

From J. WESTWOOD, Esq., Secretary, to J. S. N. BUDD, Esq., Madras Irrigation and Canal Company, dated 27 Cannon Street, E. C., London, 4th January 1864, No. 2.

SIR,

The bearer of this, Mr. Richard Law Brunton, has been appointed Interim Acting Manager of this Company at Madras, and has been instructed to assume the discharge of the duties of that office forthwith; you will therefore be good enough to place him in immediate possession of all
