SIR,

1. I have the honor to request permission to forward, to the Presidency Stores at Chepauk the whole of the records of the late Chief Engineer's Office now under my charge, of which I stand in no need whatever, and which are only a 'drag' on my Office, especially when, as now, a transfer to a new building is about to take place.

2 If it be ruled that I am to retain the charge of these records, I request that I may be allowed to entertain the establishment, marginally noted, for a period of two months for the purpose of duly assorting and registering them.

The Superintending Engineer, 4th Division, will be informed that there is at present no accommodation available at Chepauk for the records referred to in this letter. They may, however, be transferred to the Store Department on the completion of the new Presidency Store and Workshop buildings.
