Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
16th April 1864.

No. 402. ORDER THEREON, 16th April 1864, No. 1,088.

1. The Statements recorded above exhibit the sums likely to remain unspent in the 3rd Division at the close of the current official year.

2. Of the total amount (Rupees 1,29,086) shown to be available, the Government sanctions the transfer of Rupees 45,521* to the credit of the Reserve.

* Part I, Items 2, 4, 5, 6 ... ... Rs. 21,500
Part II, ... 24,021

3. With regard to the amount reported as likely to remain unspent on the work noted in the margin, the Superintending Engineer is requested to expedite the submission of the information called for in Memorandum No. 40 of the 15th instant.

Military buildings at Bellary and Ramandroog, Rupees 77,565.

4. Colonel Hemery's attention will be requested to the Proceedings of Government, No. 1,060, dated 13th April 1864, disposing of the amount (Rupees 6,000) not required from the grant of Rupees 15,000 sanctioned† for the roads in the Kadiri Táluq.

† No. 867, dated 28th March 1864.

5. The estimated cost of the road from Bellary to the Cuddapah frontier is entered in Statement No. I as Rupees 3,07,000. As the revised Estimate for the work last submitted amounts only to Rupees 1,02,200, that sum should have been entered by the Superintending Engineer. The necessary correction has been made in this Office.
