with one enclosure.</sup> should audit the charge on account of Establishment of Cochrane's Canal. No provision is made in the current year's Budget of Public Works on this account and no amount was transferred to the credit of this Department to meet the charge as in the case of the charges connected with Travellers' Bungalows. The G. O. No. 208, dated 20th January 1864, simply communicates the Proceedings in the Revenue Department. I request the orders of Government as to the source from which the Establishment in question is to be paid from. As the year has nearly expired the whole charge the Accountant General.
