Sir,

I have the honor to report for the information of Government that Mr. Sub Engineer Howard when at Madras on the 31st Ultimo on duty connected with the case of the Contractor adverted to in my letter N^o.
6055 dated 14th March 1865, met with a serious accident, and is now lying in the General Hospital with a broken leg. It is not likely that he will be able to return to duty for several weeks. I have appointed Lieutenant Brockman to perform the duties of the Vellore Range in addition to those of his own, the Pohor Range, until Mr. Howards recovery; and I recommend that he may be granted double double travelling allowance during the period he may be so engaged.

I have the honor to be
