P.W.D.

Note for the Hon. Member.

1339

In the accompanying Disallowance List the Examiner P.W. Beets retrenches a sum of Rs 35, being the cost of bringing my horse by steamer from Coamunda to Madras, on the occasion of my appointment as Acting Chief Engineer.

Sanction of Govt to the admission of the charge is requested under section 12 of the C. A. Code.

I received ^{notice} from the Acting Secretary, Colonel Mead, that I was to proceed forthwith to Sowlaishwaram and Madras, on the 1st March, when I was outwards with all my camp equipage in the Ganyam district, and had to hurry down accordingly, so as to be in Madras on the 20th March. I could not, in the short time allowed me, make arrangements to send my horse down by road, so as to be available on my assumption of the office of Chief Engineer, in which capacity I was, I presumed, to be ready or equipped for any "urgent duty" that might arise immediately on my arrival at the head quarters of the Gub.

From Madras

Sanction
 accorded, under Sec 12 of the Public Allowance Code, to charge for conveyance horse by steamer from Colanada to Madras
 on the occasion of Colonel Drake. Brock man's journey to take up the appointment
 Chief Engineer
