17th May 1865.*

Read again letters from the Director of Public Instruction, dated 21st and 27th January 1865, recorded in Proceedings No. 449, dated 15th February 1865.

No. 359. ORDER THEREON, 17th May 1865, No. 1,344.

ACCOUNT, No. 57.

1. With the letters above recorded, the Director of Public Instruction submitted the Educational Building Fund Budget Lists for 1865-66.

2. In Proceedings No. 449, dated 15th February 1865, these Lists were ordered to lie over pending the receipt of the revised Local Fund Budget from the Board of Revenue.

3. Nearly three months having elapsed since the Board were requested to submit their revised Budget, and it being unadvisable to delay further the disposal of the Educational Building Budget, the Government resolve to adopt the Statements submitted by Mr. Powell, and to print and circulate them at once to the Officers of the Public Works Department.

4. The following table exhibits, in one view, the works to be undertaken by the Officers of the Public Works and Educational Departments respectively :—

	New Works.	Repairs.	Establishment.	Total.
	RS.	RS.	RS.	RS.
By the Officers of the Public Works Department ...	1,38,739	5,470	14,421	1,58,630
By the Officers of the Educational Department, including grants-in-aid ...	58,549	3,540	...	62,089
Total ...	1,97,288	9,010	14,421	2,20,719

5. It will be understood that estimates should be submitted for all such works as require, but have not yet received the sanction of Government.
