To
Colonel C. A. Orr, R.E.

Secretary to Government, P.W. & A.

Sir, With reference to G. O. No. 1470. dated 31st Ultimo, I have the honor to observe that of the three works therein mentioned, the two last were sanctioned by Government in the last Official Year to be expended from the "Repair" allotment of that year as recommended by Captain Moherly in letter to Govt. dated 18th November 1864. No. 1822, but Capt. Payne in letter No. 106. of the 16th Ultimo, printed with the Pro. above quoted, requested sanction for the completion of those works in this year from the allotment for "Minor works" under Civil Building.
The expenditure on one of those works in last year was brought under the head "Repairs", but in this year they will have to be posted under that of "New works." I request, therefore, that the Government will authorize the Sup.
Engineer & Co. to carry them out in this year also from the "Repair allotment."
