Military Despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India, India Office, London, 17th March 1865, No. 74; to His Excellency the Right Honorable the Governor General of India in Council.

Para. 1. With your letter, dated 5th October, No. 355, you transmit the recommendation of the Commander-in-Chief, as to the seconding of Officers of the Bengal Engineers.

2. I agree with your Government that the only Officers whose seconding seems necessary are Lieutenant Colonel E. J. Lake and Captain R. Young, in Civil employ in the Punjab. Both these Officers have been in Civil employ for many years.

3. Promotions in the room of these Officers will be accordingly submitted for the approval of Her Majesty, with the view to their publication in the "London Gazette."

4. I learn from your Military letter, dated 8th December 1864, No. 455, which is replied to in my Despatch of this day's date, No. 73, that it is not considered necessary that any Officers of the late Madras or Bombay Engineers should be seconded or made Supernumerary.
