STANDING ORDER OF THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

No. 11 of 1865.

ACTING ALLOWANCES.

Date from which rules have effect.

1. The following rules will have effect in all branches of the Public Works Department throughout India, from 1st March 1865. They do not affect Upper Subordinates.

Acting allowances in the Public Works Department to be regulated by the Civil Rules.

2. The allowances of Acting Officers in the Public Works Department will henceforth be regulated on the principles laid down in the Civil Rules for deputation allowance, adapted to the circumstances of the Public Works Department as follows:—

Rules for deputation allowance, adapted to the circumstances of the Public Works Department as follows:—

Designations Class, and Grade.

3. The application of the designations "Class" and "Grade" will henceforth be made on the principles adopted in the Civil Department.

All special appointments will be treated as being of a special "Class."
Superintending Engineers will form one Class.
Executive Engineers will form a Class divided into four Grades.
Assistant Engineers will form a Class divided into two Grades.

Consolidated Salary defined.

4. The expression "Consolidated Salary" in these orders is, in all cases, to be understood as the salary fixed for a Civil Officer holding an appointment, even though the Officer affected in the calculation of deputation allowance be a Military Officer.

allowances to an Officer not holding any substantive appointment.

5. An Officer officiating in the Public Works Department who does not hold any substantive appointment, shall receive 50 per cent. in giving deputation allowance.

on the consolidated salary of the situation in which he may officiate. In giving deputation allowance under this rule to a Military Officer not holding any substantive appointment, who may officiate in the Public Works Department, the allowance granted will be in addition to his Military pay and allowances, up to an amount not exceeding what the Officer could draw were he to be confirmed in the lowest Grade of the Class in which he may be appointed to officiate.

6. Officiating appointments are not made in the Public Works Department within a Class. In the same Class an officer of one Grade is not allowed to officiate in another Grade, and deputation is only given where an Officer of one Class acts in another Class.

allowances to the holder of a substantive appointment officiating in another situation.

7. The holder of a substantive appointment, if officiating in another situation, shall draw his substantive emoluments, and in addition thereto a deputation allowance computed as follows:—

Twenty per cent. on average monthly consolidated salaries of Rupees 2,000 and under.
On average monthly consolidated salaries exceeding Rupees 2,000, 20 per cent. on Rs. 2,000, and 10 per cent. on the amount by which the average salary may exceed Rupees 2,000.

Limitation.

But only such portion of the deputation allowance can be drawn as may bring up the salary of the officiating Officer, whether he perform his own substantive duties in addition or not, to the amount which he would draw if confirmed in the lowest Grade of the higher Class in which he officiates.

Allowances how calculated.

8. The deputation allowance in the two foregoing cases is computed, as regards appointments which are in Classes and Grades, on the average consolidated pay of all the Grades in the Class in which the Officer acts.

Application of these rules.

9. These rules are to be applied to all Officers, Military or Civil, officiating in the superior appointments of the several branches of the Public Works Department in all cases, whether in an absolute vacancy, or during the absence of a permanent incumbent on general or privilege leave, special duty or field service.

Substitutes for Officers on privilege leave.

10. The deputation allowance to the substitute of an Officer on privilege leave will be paid by the State, subject to the general proviso contained in the following clause, which under the ordinary Civil Rules, applies to all deputation allowances.

Officer officiating for another on privilege leave at the same station.

11. An Officer officiating in any appointment at the same Station at which he is permanently posted, will not receive deputation allowance for the first month during which he may officiate, unless he has already officiated in the same appointment, without receiving deputation allowance for the first month, within eleven months preceding his second deputation.
