OFFICE MEMORANDUM.

The undersigned has the honor, in reply to Secretary Lieutenant-Colonel Dickens' Memorandum, No. 867E, dated 12th May 1865, to inform him, that the General Order, No. 260 of 1865, forming a Native Unattached List, was not meant to apply to any but the Bengal Army. The measure is merely experimental, and the Government have no sufficient data to lead them to conclude, that it holds out good prospects of success in the Armies of Madras or Bombay. It has not therefore been extended to those Presidencies ; doubtless, if either Government considers the scheme one likely to be useful, it will come up with a proposal to introduce it.
