Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 25th August 1865.

No. 591.

Read the following papers :—

From Captain R. F. OAKES, R. E., Superintending Engineer, 6th Division, to Colonel C. A. ORR, R. E., Secretary to Government, Public Works Department, dated Tanjore, 18th July 1865, No. 584 :—

SIR,

1. I have the honor to forward, for the sanction of Government, a plan and estimate for an addition to the Moonsiff's Court at Manargudi, of a back verandah to afford accommodation for the Gumastahs and Vakeels attached to his Court.

Enclosures 2.

2. The estimate amounts to Rs. 355, which is above 25 per cent. of the value* of the building: and hence the sanction of Government is necessary.

* Rupees 1,140.

3. The estimate has been countersigned by the Civil Judge in token of his approval.

4. Funds can be provided for the work from the allotment for Minor New Works in the Budget of 1865-66.

Referred to the Judicial Department, with reference to the Order in that Department, No. 621, dated 25th April 1865.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,
22nd July 1865.

(Signed) CHARLES A. ORR, Colonel, R. E.,
Secretary to Government, P.W.D.

The Civil Judge of Tanjore is requested to report for what purpose the verandah in question is required.

FORT SAINT GEORGE,

To the Civil Judge of Tanjore, with Estimate and Plan.

No. 592. Memorandum from the Chief Secretary to Government, Judicial Department :—

(Here enter 16th August 1865, No. 324.)

From E. W. BIRD, Esq., Civil Judge of Tanjore, to the Honorable A. J. ARBUTHNOT, Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Tanjore, 1st August 1865, No. 471.

SIR,

1. In returning the Superintending Engineer's letter of the 18th ultimo, No. 584, and its enclosures, forwarded to me with your docket of the 28th idem, I have the honor to report that the verandah for the Manargudi Moonsiff's Court House therein mentioned, is required to afford accommodation for the Establishment of that Court.

2. The building consists, at present, of three rooms, in one of which, 24 feet in length by 12 broad, the Moonsiff holds his Court. The other two are 9 and 12 feet long and 12 broad respectively, and the space in these is taken up by the Cash Chest and Records. On the southern side of the building is a verandah, 55 feet long, which is the only place where the Gumastahs, Ameens, and Peons of his Court can sit and do their work.

3. The Moonsiff, in reporting the necessity for repairing the building in February last, brought to notice the great inconvenience he felt from the want of sufficient accommodation, and

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 25th August 1865.

therefore requested that a verandah of the same dimensions as the one on the south side might be erected on the north. I accordingly requested Captain Oakes to have an estimate prepared for the addition in question, and sent up for sanction, as I considered the same really needed.

No. 593.

ORDER THEREON, 25th August 1865, No. 2,476.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 83.

I. The Governor in Council sanctions the estimate, amounting to Rupees 355, for the construction of an additional verandah to the building at Manargudi occupied as the District Moonsiff's Court.

2. The cost of the work will be charged against the allotment for Minor New Works under "Civil Buildings" in the Tanjore District.

Sir,
In returning to the Superintending Engineer's letter of the 18th ultimo, No. 584, and its enclosures, forwarded to me with your packet of the 28th idem, I have the honor to report that the verandah for the Manargudi Moonsiff's Court House therein mentioned is required to afford accommodation for the establishment of that Court.

2. The building consists at present of three rooms, in one of which, 24 feet in length by 12 broad, the Moonsiff holds his Court. The other two are 9 & 12 feet long and 12 broad respectively and the space in these is taken up by the Cash Chest and records. On the southern side of the building building is a verandah, 55 feet long, which is the only place where the Cummardah, Amin and two of his Court can sit and do their work.

3. The Moonsiff, in reporting the necessity for repairing the building in February last, brought to notice the great inconvenience he felt from the want of sufficient accommodation, & therefore requested that a verandah of the same dimensions as the one on the South side might be erected on the North. Accordingly requested Captain Baker to have an estimate prepared for the addition in question & sent it for sanction, as I considered the same really needed.
