Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 17th October 1865.

No. 379. Read the following letter from the Superintending Engineer, 1st Division, to the Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Waltair, 3rd October 1865, No. 1,139 :—

SIR,

1. Delta Superintendent N. Appoodoo of the Godavery District having been reported by the Civil Surgeon at Rajahmundry as suffering from an incurable disease, (malignant ulceration of the tongue,) was removed on the 1st February 1864, from the Department, and directed to send in an application for either pension or gratuity.

2. The man however died on the 17th July without having sent in the required application, his son and widow now apply for pension or gratuity.

3. By records of the late District Engineer's Office, it appears that Appoodoo had nineteen years' service in the Department Public Works, of which five years was temporary employment, but in consequence of his death without all the particulars required in such cases cannot be entered in the formal application.

4. I have, therefore, the honor to request that, as a special case, a gratuity of six months' pay* may be sanctioned for the widow of late Delta Superintendent Appoodoo, who was an old and useful
