6 of 1864.	Nellore Talook. The entire emolument is Rupees 6 per month, or 72 Rupees per year.	Originally granted under a Parwana of the Nabob Wallajah, dated 21st Jilhez 1186, Hijiri (A. D. 16th March 1773,) to five persons, Mahomed Yusoff, Subadar Husen, Shaik Muktum, Gulamalli and Jainulabdin.	The service of Yeomiah of Asar Sarif, and reading religious books.	Mahomed Ghouse died on the 26th January 1864; was a grandson of the original grantee named Shaik Muktum.	Exclusive holder.	1 Mahomed Kassim, son of the elder wife of the deceased, age 46 years. 1 Mahomed Rahamtalla, son of the said Mahomed Kassim, age 18 years. 1 Hazrat Sahiba, 2nd wife of the deceased, age 50 years. 1 Jöharabi, daughter of the 2nd wife, age 30 years.

8.—Recommendation of the Collector, and the grounds on which it is made.

1. On the assumption of the country by the British Government, an allowance of 30 Rupees per mensem, originally granted by the Nabob Wallajah, was renewed in equal shares in the names of the five persons entered in column 3.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th February 1865.

2. The share of one of these named Shaik Maktum, amounting to Rupees 6 per month, was under orders of Government dated 3rd January 1823, continued to his grandson, Mahomed Ghouse, who is reported to have died on the 26th January 1864, leaving a son and a grandson by his first wife, as also a second wife, with a daughter by her, whose names are given in column 7.
3. From the report of the Town Sub-Magistrate of Nellore, dated 4th May 1864, No. 86, and its enclosures, it appears that the second wife, named Hazarat Sahiba, adopted Rahamtalla, grandson of her husband by the first wife, and prays that the share in question may be registered in his name.
4. Mahomed Kassim, father of the said Rahamtalla, and son of the deceased Yeomiahdar, has also signified his willingness to the arrangement proposed (being at the present time, it has been ascertained on personal inquiry, borne on the list of the Nellore Talook Establishment as a Peon, and tried, it must be added, at the last Sessions on a charge of concealing evidence in a forgery case).
5. The Treasury Deputy Collector, who was also called upon to report on the matter, states in letter dated 16th June 1864, No. 372, the Yeomiah can be continued in the name of Rahamtalla; and as the widow in her Kyphiyat states the service is being performed by him, the Collector begs to recommend that the share of the deceased Mahomed Ghouse may be renewed in the name of his grandson Rahamtalla, on the usual condition of service.
6. The arrears, amounting to Rupees 66 from 16th January 1864 to 30th November 1864, are also recommended to be paid.
1. The share, amounting to Rupees 72 per annum, now reported on, forms, as the Collector states in his report, a portion of an original allowance of 360 Rupees per annum granted by the Nabob Wallajah, on 16th March 1773, to five persons in the Nellore District, for the performance of certain religious services.
2. The share in question appears under No. 20 in a "Statement of the claims to the succession of Yeomiahs in the Nellore and Ongole Districts," which the Collector of Nellore, in a letter dated 19th November 1822, submitted to the Board for orders, and which the Board forwarded to Government on the 12th December 1822. The Board then recommended that the share should be continued to Mahomed Ghouse, (the grandson of the original grantee, and the person whose death is now reported,) for the performance of the service for which it was originally granted, and the Government sanctioned the Board's recommendation.
3. The Yeomiah being a religious service Yeomiah, the Collector could, under the Board's Circulars noted in the margin, have registered it in the name of the legal heir of the last holder, and reported the fact through the Board for the confirmation of Government; but the legal heir (Mahomed Kassim, son of the elder wife of the deceased,) has expressed his willingness that the share should be continued in the name of his son Rahamtalla, who has been adopted by the second wife of deceased, and who, it appears, is now performing the service. It is also stated that Mahomed Cassim is a Peon on the Nellore Talook Establishment.
3rd September 1861, No. 4762.
4th February 1864, " XII.
4. Under the above circumstances, the Board recommend that sanction be granted for registering the Yeomiah of 72 Rupees per annum in the name of Rahamtalla, grandson of the deceased.
5. The Collector will pay the arrears due from 16th January to 30th November 1864, amounting to Rupees 63-1-6, and not 66 Rupees as erroneously stated in the Collector's report, to the person in whose name the Government sanction the registry of the allowance.
