No. 86.

From Col. G. V. Winsom - R.C.
Superintendent Engineer
To Colonel C. A. Orr R.C.
Secretary to Government
D.D.

Sir: The value of labour in this District has risen so considerably during the last few years, that the wages then given to the Amiens and Cook Vascars (10/- & 12/- per man sum) totally fail now in procuring men who are able and willing to do their work properly. I beg to refer you to Col. Anderson's address on the matter in a letter No 194 dated 26 September 1864 and Government in G.O. No 1910 of 12 October acceded to his proposal. Since the time however it has been found that nearly all the situations of Vascars at 4 1/2 Rs and some of those at 5 remain vacant. Every Range Officer

Vide para 5 of Col. Anderson's letter.

Complain that the allowance made for each Vaseer is totally insufficient to induce able bodied men to remain, for any strong man can now get 7 Rs a month for towing the Navigation Boats on the Canal and their hours of work are much shorter, the Vaseers having to attend day and night to pass the Boats thru the Locks. The number of Boats flying on the Canals are greatly on the increase. The Vizampatam Canal is opened to tide water and the numbers of Boats on the Guntur portion of the Delta will be much larger.

Under these circumstances
 I solicit the sanction of Government to the adoption of the following scale of Establishment in lieu of that at present sanctioned:
