REMARKS.

An allotment for continuing operations on the new trace of the Periah Ghát to open it for wheeled traffic was not made in the current year's Budget in order that fuller provision might be made for the Carcoor and Tambracherry Gháts and other lines of communication in Wynaad, but representations having since been made of the disadvantages North Wynaad suffered from the non-completion of communication between it and the coast viâ Periah, the Government have considered it expedient to order the works on that ghát to be resumed.
