Read the following letter from the Agent and Manager Madras Irrigation and Canal Company,[1] to the Consulting Engineer for Irrigation and Canal Company, dated Madras, 12th September 1866, No. 230.

1. I have the honor to draw your attention to an item of Rupees 50 in Form J, which was advanced in 1863 in the Nagatore Division to Mr. Brooke, one of the Range Officers.

2. There is no evidence that Mr. Brooke ever accounted for the advance, but that individual and every other person who could have thrown light upon the transaction have long since left the service.

3. All my efforts to obtain information as to the disposal of the money have proved unavailing, and I do not see that any other course is left but to write the amount off as a loss, and I recommend that this be done.

Submitted for the consideration of Government, with a recommendation that authority be given for the adjustment of the sum, Rupees 50, advanced to Mr. Brooke in 1863, by its debit to "profit and loss."
