Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
9th October 1866.

No. 206. Read the following Telegram from the Residents of Areyamungalum, village of Trichinopoly, Táluq Trichinopoly, to the Chief Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 18th September 1866 :—

Having no water left in the river Wooyacondum, a branch of the Cauvery, for a long time our paddy fields are dried, and we are at a loss of three lacs of Rupees. This was informed to the Collector's Sheristadar and Tahsildar here. They took no notice of our request. We humbly beg your honor to pity our condition and send some gentleman to inspect our thirty-two villages, and also granting orders to Collector to leave water immediately in the Wooyacondum. Reply pre-paid.

Transferred to the Public Works Department.
