1. As the new Presidency College is, under the contract, to be complete, within two years, I have the honor to state that the grant for the same in Item No. 52 of the next year's Budget should be raised from Rs. 30,000 to Rs. 80,000.

likely to prove very prejudicial to his intended contract, and soliciting permission to withdraw. A copy of my reply is also forwarded, wherein I have shown Mr. Sowerby that the inconvenience arising from such delays can be remedied under the contract, and that when the contract is presented to him for signature, it will be for him to sign or not as he likes; should he fail to do so, he will of course forfeit his deposit of (100) one hundred Rupees.

2. On the whole, perhaps, it will be considered advantageous not to have to do with a Contractor who is prepared to resort to such wretched pleas, and if Mr. Sowerby, as is probable, will decline to sign, I recommend that the University be built by Mr. Chisholm, under departmental arrangements.

No. 635. ORDER THEREON, 28th February 1866, No. 690.

CIVIL WORKS, No. 85.

1. The Government permit Mr. Sowerby to withdraw his tender for the construction of the new Presidency

College at Madras, and should no other duly qualified person be forthcoming to undertake the erection of the building by contract, they approve of the work being carried out by departmental agency, under the immediate supervision of Mr. Chisholm.

2. The question of supplementing the funds which have been allotted for the building in the Budget of 1866-67, will be considered hereafter.
