Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 6th March 1866.

No. 97. Read the following Circular from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Account), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Fort William, 6th February 1866, No. 11 :—

It having appeared that a Register of appropriations has been kept up in the Office of the Secretary to a Local Government, the undersigned is directed to point out that this seems unnecessary. No Register of appropriations or sanctions need be kept except those of the Controller; and, generally, no paper or book which is kept up in the Controller's Office need be kept also in that of the Secretary to the Local Administration, or in that of the Chief Engineer. The Controller is responsible to the Local Government or Administration for the accuracy of the returns kept by him, and it is his duty to afford information on all subjects connected with his Office. It is desirable, therefore, that his returns should be utilized in full by the Local Government or Administration.
