Seventy-six thousand one hundred and twenty-one, Annas seven, and Pies ten.

1. For the reasons stated in the accompanying copy of letter to the Agent of the Great Southern of India Railway, a sum of Rupees 3-13-6 has been struck out from the account of "Stores purchased," and the aggregate of the expenditure incurred for that purpose has been reduced from Rupees 18,152-9-4 to Rupees 18,148-11-10.

2. The report of work done in the Extension in the month of November is satisfactory. The total length of Permanent Way laid on District No. 1 is about 13½ miles.

3. The accounts having been found correct, I would recommend that sanction be granted for the expenditure, amounting to Rupees 76,121-7-10.

From the Consulting Engineer for Railways, to the Agent and Traffic Manager Great Southern of India Railway, Negapatam, dated Madras, 18th January 1866, No. 18.

The accompanying Bill for Rupees 3-13-6 for black cloth and white tape for the late Fitter Pemberton's coffin is charged to the General Stores, and included in form Q. for the month of November 1865.

2. The coffin was probably made up in the Workshop at Trichinopoly. If it was, its cost should be ascertained; and the whole cost should be charged to "Revenue," on which Account the Fitter was employed when he died.

3. It appears to me that charges of this nature should be properly met from the fine or sick allowance fund.

4. The sum of Rupees 3-13-6 has been struck out of the form Q. from the followi ng entry and I have the honor to request that the necessary correction may be made in your office copy.
