No. 169.

Read the following :—

REMARKS.

I. It is expected that some delay will take place in the construction of certain buildings which have been included in the estimate for the accommodation to be provided at Saint Thomas' Mount for two Batteries of Artillery, and the Superintending Engineer has therefore surrendered a sum of Rupees 5,580 of the Budget allotment in order that it may be made available for urgent minor Military Works.

II. The Collector considers these works of great importance, and states that they will materially assist the manufacture and collection of salt at Vedarniem.

III. This transfer is necessary in order to supplement the allotment for the Bimlipatam Court House, the cost of which it is reported will exceed the original estimate by Rupees 734.

IV. These bridges are represented by the Collector to be much required.
