Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
27th April 1867.

No. 504. ORDER THEREON, 27th April 1867, No. 1,250.

ACCOUNT, No. 42.

1. The sum of Rupees 880 which is required for the completion of the Arkencottah channel, in the Coimbatore District, is sanctioned from the Reserve under "Agricultural."

2. The Government are unwilling at this early part of the year to reduce the allotment for the "Vanipoottoor aqueduct," which should, if possible, be completed by the 31st March next. Every effort should be made to push on the construction of the "masonry sluices in the Thadapully channel," and the Government will be prepared to allot any additional funds that may hereafter be required for that work.
