Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 3*rd May* 1867.

No. 99. Read the following letter from the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Establishment), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Calcutta, 13th April 1867, No. 593 E:—

In reply to your letter, No. 940 of the 25th March 1867, intimating that the services of Lieutenant Filgate, R.E, will be placed at the disposal of the Government of India, as soon as he can be relieved, and proposing the appointment of Mr. W. Donald, Examiner of Claims, as Lieutenant Filgate's successor on a salary of not less than Rupees 800 per mensem, I am directed to state that the Examiner of Railway Accounts, recently appointed under the Government of Bengal, receives a salary of only Rupees 600, rising by annual increments of Rupees 50 to 700 per mensem. As the duties of the Examiner in Bengal are more important and onerous than those Mr. Donald would have to perform, His Excellency the Governor General in Council is unable to allow more for Madras than what has been sanctioned for Bengal, and it is hoped a competent Uncovenanted Officer to fill the post on the liberal salary allowed, will be soon found to relieve Lieutenant Filgate.

No. 100. ORDER THEREON, 3rd May 1867, No. 1,341.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 11.

Mr. Donald having declined to accept the post of Examiner of Railway Accounts on the terms prescribed by the Government of India, His Excellency in Council resolves to appoint Captain C. M. Moberly, of the Staff Corps, to that office, and to place the services of Lieutenant A. J. Filgate, of the Royal Engineers, from date of relief, at the disposal of the Government of India, for employment as Second Assistant to the Accountant General in the Public Works Department.
