To Colonel C. A. Orr. P.S.
Secretary to Government. Flvd.

I have the honor to submit for the information of Government, Letter No 123 of the 20th Instant from the Collector of Trichinopoly bringing to notice the present dangerous state of the Roadway across the bridge over the Upper Annicut. An Estimate of Rs 12760 for widening the Bridge was submitted to Government in September last, but in their Order No 3285 of the 15th October sanction was withheld and no provision was made for it in the current year's Budget. With a view to prevent any accident, I have instructed the Executive Agent to prepare and submit an Estimate for closing up the Roadway with rough but strong.

36
Strong wooden gates under padlock,
and I have informed him that only the officers of the Department and the members of the Conservancy Establishment should be permitted to make use of the Road.

The Estimate for closing the Road along I purpose charging to the head "Agricultural Repairs".

The Estimate for widening the bridge, I kept to present for the orders of Government.

The work cannot be executed
until next season.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most Obedt Servant.
