Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 25th June 1867.

No. 535. Read the following Circular from the Government of India, Public Works Department, (Account), dated Simla, 4th June 1867, No. 47.

Adjustment of claims for compensation awarded for inferior quarters to Soldiers including trained School-masters, School-mistresses, &c.

Read Military Department's Extract Proceedings, No. 696, dated 17th April 1867

OBSERVATIONS—The Governor General in Council in this Department concurs in the opinion expressed in the above-noted proceedings, that these claims will most conveniently be adjusted by the Officers of the Public Works Department.

2. In future, then, Executive Engineers will pay such awards as may be made for defective accommodation, and charge the amounts against the head "Repairs—Military." The arrangements for regulating such charges will be similar to those in force for the provision of hired quarters.
