Telegram from Controller of Military Accounts, Calcutta, 29th May 1867, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, Simla.

An officer is assessed to the first June, License Tax, say in the first class; on the 3rd June he embarks for Europe, or he ceases to hold the appointment which brought him in the first class. Is he to be re-classed, and to be paid back, any excess of tax levied? If any officer obtains an appointment after the 1st June, is he to be re-classed, and required to pay any additional tax?

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA, FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

SIMLA, the 5th June 1867.

Read the Proceedings in the Military Department, dated 31st May, No. 331, forwarding for decision two questions relating to the incidence of the License Tax Act.

RESOLUTION.—The first question is whether if an officer assessed on the first of June in the first class, embarks on the 3rd of June for Europe, or ceases to hold the appointment which brought him into the first class ; he is to be re-classed, and any excess of tax paid back to him.

1. The Governor General in Council considers such a case should be dealt with entirely on its merits. As a general rule, if an officer remains upwards of six months in India after the 1st June, or continues for that period, to hold the appointment on which his assessment was based, a refund should not be given.

2. The next case is, if an officer obtains an appointment after the 1st of June, is he to be re-classed and required to pay an additional tax ? The answer to this is in the negative.

ORDER.—Ordered that the Military Department be informed accordingly.
