Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department, 26th July 1867.

Read the following papers:—

No. 658. Telegram from Colonel WINSCOM, Masulipatam, to Major STEWART, Madras, dated 24th July 1867.

Mr. Hasler reported his departure on 13th instant.

No. 659. From the Special Executive Engineer, Wynaad, to the Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Wynaad, Luckadie, 22nd July 1867, No. 288.

1. I have the honor to bring to your notice that Mr. Supervisor Hasler, who was ordered to relieve Mr. Nordmann, has not yet arrived, nor have I heard any thing from him reporting his departure for Wynaad. Mr. Nordmann complains bitterly of the hardship of this long delay, but I am unable to do anything to relieve him of it, except by allowing him to hand over charge of his Range to his Overseer, a step that I do not feel justified in without sanction.

2. I shall be obliged also by being informed whether any Officer is likely soon to arrive to re-place Lieutenant Shepherd; I find the latter so entirely useless, that I am about to take charge of his duties myself, and allow him to go. I should also undertake Mr. Nordmann's duties temporarily, but that my own health has not been good for some time past, and unless I can get a short relaxation from work, and change of air, I fear I shall hardly be able to go through the next season's work without breaking down, and, on the same grounds, I trust an Officer in place of Lieutenant Shepherd may be appointed as soon as practicable.

No. 660. ORDER THEREON, 26th July 1867, No. 2,268.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 65.

1. Ordered that a copy of the Telegram above recorded be furnished to Captain Kennedy, who will be informed, with reference to his letter of the 22nd July 1867, No. 288, that application has been made to His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief for the services of Captain Raynsford, with a view to his employment in the Wynaad.

2. Mr. Hasler has obtained ten days' casual leave on urgent private affairs, and he undertakes to be at his station in the Wynaad on the 10th proximo, or as soon after as possible.

Sir,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that Mr. Superintendent Hasler who was ordered to relieve Mr. Nordmann has not yet arrived, nor have I heard anything from him reporting his departure for Wynad.
Mr. Nordmann complains bitterly of the hardship of this long delay, but I am unable to do anything to relieve him of it, except by allowing him to hand over charge of his Range to his Querevoir, a step that I do not feel justified in without sanction.

2. I shall be obliged also by being informed whether any Officer is likely soon to arrive to replace Lieutenant Shepherd; I find the latter so entirely useless, that I am about to take charge of his duties myself,
and allow him to go. I should also undertake Mr.
Nordmann's duties temporarily, but that my own health has not been good for some time past; and unless I can get a short relaxation from work, and change of air, I fear I shall hardly be able to go through the next season's work without breaking down; and on the same grounds I trust an Officer in place of Lieutenant Shepherd may be appointed as soon as practicable.

I have the honor to be
Sir,
Your most obedient servant
R. H. Venn, Captain
Special Ex. Engineer, Wynad.
