2. The papers recorded in G. O. of the 30th January 1867, No. 290, were furnished to Captain Beckley for guidance in the submission of the additional estimate for the Rajahmundry Jail; but as no notice has apparently been taken of them, and as the Government are unable to consider the revised estimate for that building with the very imperfect information now before them, the papers will be returned to Captain Beckley, whose attention will be again drawn to the Memorandum printed with the Order above quoted, as explanatory of the mode in which the estimate in question should be submitted. That Officer will be further reminded that as the sanction of the Government of India will be required to the proposed additional outlay, it is essential that the papers should be complete in all particulars.

parently been taken of them, & as the Government are unable to consider the revised estimate
