ORDER THEREON, 8th August 1867, No. 2,407.

No. 196. ACCOUNT, No. 26.

As the Government of India are opposed to petty transfers of funds from one main head of service to another, the Governor in Council is unwilling, at this early part of the year, to submit the proposals of the Superintending Engineer of the 7th Division for the sanction of that Government. Colonel Walker will accordingly be requested to take measures for providing the small sums required in South Canara under the heads "Repairs of Communications" and "Minor New Works, Civil Buildings" by transfers from the assignments under corresponding heads for the Coimbatore or Malabar District.
