Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department, 3rd September 1867.

No. 3. Read the following letter from the Acting Superintendent of Marine, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George; dated Madras, 26th August 1867, No. 2920.

I have the honor to annex a statement of unexpended balances and excess of expenditure, over sanctioned amounts for Marine works, at the close of the official year 1866-67, and to solicit sanction to the Accountant General's placing them to the credit of the Public Works Department from Port Funds.

2. A sum of Rupees 2672 has been charged for establishment at 10 per cent., upon all new works and repairs executed by the Public Works Department, during the year under notice.

3. Government, in their Proceedings marginally noted, sanctioned Rupees 9418 for the completion of certain works at the Port of Mangalore, from which sum Rupees 8000 were allotted for the Mangalore Quay; but on a reference to the statement, it will be seen that the sanctioned amount has been exceeded by Rupees 3821-2-11. The work is still in progress.

4. The aggregate amount, for the transfer of which permission is solicited, is Rupees 10,083-12-9.
