Proceedings of the Madras Government, Public Works Department,
23rd September* 1867.

No. 542. Read the following letter from the Controller of Public Works Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Department Public Works, dated Madras, 16th September 1867, No. 2,349:—

3 Original Enclosures.

1. I have the honor to submit this application on behalf of Mr. G. R. Quintwal, a Clerk in my Office on a salary of Rupees 25 per mensem, for exemption from the Uncovenanted Service Examination Rules, on the ground of his previous service under Government.

2. He was employed in the Accountant General's Office from December 1852 to October 1854, and was obliged to vacate his post on account of an Order from the then Honorable Court of Directors of the East India Company for the reinstatement of certain parties who were discharged from that Office. He was subsequently employed as a Clerk in the Registrar's Office of the then Sudder Adalut, now High Court, viz., from October 1855 to September 1858, but after this his services were temporarily engaged in the Post Office and Chief Engineer's Office for a few months, and he was taken permanently into this Office on the 1st June 1866.

3. The testimonials he possesses are very good, and he has conducted himself to my satisfaction here, and I beg that the Government will take his case into consideration and grant him this request.

No. 543. ORDER THEREON, 23rd September 1867, No. 2,944.

ESTABLISHMENT, No. 61.

As Mr. Quintwal resigned the appointment which he held in the late Sudder Court from October 1855 to September 1858, his past services cannot be held to entitle him to exemption from the operation of the Uncovenanted Service Examination Rules, and the Government are therefore unable to comply with this application on his behalf.
